THE CHINA REVIEW.
PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history and literature, has reached its eighteenth volume. The new volume contains topics which are important in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting notes and original papers on the Arts, Science, Ethnology, Folk-lore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been added, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by attending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives a special attention, and contributors are made to present a careful and concise report of literature on China, Japan, and the Far East, and to give evidence of the accuracy of their statements. Contributors are requested to send their work to the Editor, Chinese Review, c/o China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are also continued, and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondence column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Societies, the Imperial Chinese, and the Hong Kong Society, and also by the Messrs. Laidlaw, Messrs. Stott, Phillips, Macleay, Grant, Jackson, Fisher, Kopsch, Parry, Taylor, Giles, Pison, and Taylor, and other names, indicative of the high degree of scholarship and industry of the contributors.

The Subscription price is £5 5s per annum, postage included, payable in advance. Orders for sending volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: Messrs. China Mail Office.
